CO-EDS' "UNDERSTANDING"

Missouri Students Wear Larger Shoes Than Those of Vassar.

Columbia, Mo., May 5.—The co-eds of the University of Missouri wear larger shoes than the students of Wellesley, Vassar, Radcliffe, Barnard College or any of the eastern female colleges. According to a Columbia shoe merchant, who sells a majority of shoes to the students of the women of the University of Missouri wear, as an average, 4B size shoes, and he has sold shoes as large as 7C. In the report from eastern colleges the girls at Vassar wear 3B size, Radcliffe 3B, Wellesley 4C and Barnard College in New York 2.

Rather Touchy. "Look here," drawled Farmer Ryeaton, in the diner of the palace train, "what do you mean by bringing me a finger bowl with rose leaves in it?"

"Why, boss, dat is de latest style," assured the waiter.

"It is, eh? Well, I thought you had cut out the regulation slices of lemon because you were afraid I would mistake it for lemonade. I ain't one of them comin'-page farmers, boy."—Chicago News.

WEIRD ORGIES BY "GREAT GOD OOM."

NEW YORK POLICE UNEARTH MORE WICKEDNESS.

Led Young Girls in Semi-Nude Dances and Is Charged With Abduction.

FIND A CESSPOOL OF CRIME.

New York, May 6.—The police, the district attorney and the Rockefeller grand jury are digging into the cesspool of crime and corruption in New York. The latest development is the arrest of Pierre Bernard, who is known as the great god "Oom, Oom, and Omnipotent." He is in jail in default of $15,000 bail and there is no one now to stand on the great crystal ball in the upper room of the house at 258 West Seventy-fourth street, and lead old men and young girls through the mazes of the Oriental dances.

By the arrest of the great Oom, who appears on the police records as Pierre A. Bernard, there has been barred a story as startling as any ever unearthed by the local police.

Magistrate Breen has held the great Oom, who is also original "Tactric Guru," on a charge of abducting Gertrude Leo, aged nineteen, and detaining her four months in the house of dancing and weird "Hindoo" rites.

An Acrobatic Diversion.

When the police, in search of the Leo girl, gained entrance to the house on Monday night, they found the great god Oom balancing himself on a crystal globe, while on a great rug, with the signs of the Zodiac, thirteen followers, eight old men and five young girls, clad in the lightest of bathing suits, writhed, twisted and howled in time to the leader's chant.

When arrested, Oom said it was only physical culture. Assistant District Attorney Reynolds, who spent three hours questioning Miss Zella Hopp and Miss Gertrude Leo, members of the class, believes it was something far more serious than physical culture, and Oom will appear tomorrow for further examination.

Shows Ambitious Plans.

The great Oom came here from the West several months ago. He had established "orders" all the way from Seattle to New York, but it is not known that any of them lived after the departure of "The Tactric Guru."

He had several ardent disciples. One of them is the old man, name unknown, who pleaded to be allowed to furnish bail for Oom. His property is in Florida, and the old man went away broken-hearted. "I will gladly sacrifice anything for him," he said.

"Oom," who posed as a Hindoo Seer, is thirty-three years old, and he was born in Chicago. He was never in India, but through careful study he was able to "preach a remarkable jumble of all faiths in one."

TERRIBLE CASE OF ECZEMA CURED

Body and Face Covered with Itching, Painful Eruption—5 Years of Suffering Beyond Description—Thought Death was Near.

WANTS WORLD TO KNOW OF CURE BY CUTICURA

"No tongue can tell how I suffered for five years with itching and bleeding eczema, until I was cured by the Cuticura Remedies, and I am so grateful I want the world to know, for what helped me will help others. My body and face were covered with sores. One day it would seem to be better, and then break out again with the most terrible pain and itching. I have been sick several times, but never in my life did I experience such awful suffering as with this eczema. I had made up my mind that death was near at hand, and I longed for that time when I would be at rest. I had tried many different doctors and medicines without success, and my mother brought me the Cuticura Remedies, insisting that I try them. I began to feel better after the first bath with Cuticura Soap, and one application of Cuticura Ointment. "I continued with the Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment, and have taken four bottles of Cuticura Resolvent, and consider myself well. This was nine years ago and I have had no return of the trouble since. Any person having any doubt about this wonderful cure by the Cuticura Remedies can write to my address. Mrs. Alice Elson, 93 Inn Road, Battle Creek, Mich., Oct. 16, 1909."

The suffering which Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment have alleviated among skin-tortured, disfigured infants and children, and the comfort they have afforded worn-out and worried parents have led to their adoption in countless homes as a priceless treatment for the skin. Eczema, rashes, and every form of itching, burning, scaly humor are speedily cured by Cuticura, in the majority of cases, when all else fails.

Cuticura Soap (25c), Ointment (50c), Resolvent (50c), and Cuticura Cream (25c), are sold throughout the world. Cuticura Soap and Ointment, 137 Columbus Ave., Boston.

WOMAN ESCAPES OPERATION

Was Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Elwood, Ind.—"Your remedies have cured me and I have only taken six bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I was sick three months and could not walk. I suffered all the time. The doctors said I could not get well without an operation, for I could hardly stand the pain in my sides, especially my right one, and down my right leg. I began to feel better when I had taken only one bottle of Compound, but kept on as I was afraid to stop too soon."—Mrs. SAUL MULLEN, 2728 N. B. St., Elwood, Ind.

Why will women take chances with an operation or drag out a sickly, half-hearted existence, missing three-fourths of the joy of living, when they can find health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound? Your letter for thirty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has cured thousands of women who have been troubled with such ailments as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, indigestion, and nervous prostration.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be absolutely confidential, and the advice free.

was wont to say, "You may accept what portents seem good to you."

Gertrude Leo, for whose abduction Oom was arrested, met the man in Seattle. She thinks he exercised some peculiar sort of charm over her. At any rate, she followed him to New York "to be treated for heart trouble," she said. Oom says that she came of her own accord to serve him as secretary.

When Miss Leo found that she could not collect any wages from the Tactric Guru she tried to leave the house, going to the home of the Hoppes. Zella Hopp had never been a member of the "order," but she had lived in the house and knew the situation which existed there. Both girls believed the great Oom was to love with them until they compared notes and found him to be a gay deceiver.

Miss Hopp was willing to assist the Leo girl to escape from the toils, and the girl fled, taking her trunk with her.

Proved a Foolish Maiden.

One of the young disciples discovered where the girl had gone, and soon Miss Leo received word that important business was awaiting for her at the Seventy-fourth-street house. She was foolish enough to return, and from that time until Monday night she was virtually a prisoner in the house, a member of the dancing class and a teacher of the cult. Mrs. Hopp, who had received money and letters from the girl, demanded to see her, and Oom allowed her to go to the Hopp residence, but insisted that a disciple should attend her and that no conversation should be held in private.

"The girl was a nervous wreck," said Mrs. Hopp. "She came into the house with her eyes cast down, and when I asked her if she wished to leave us and return to Oom she repeated over and over that it was her wish. Her manner convinced me that she was under some sort of a spell, and I immediately wrote Mrs. Jennie Miller, her sister, who lives in Seattle.

Calls Him Wicked.

"Mrs. Miller came at once, and through the fact that my daughter knew of the secret signal they were able to get into the house and surprise Oom at his work. He is a very wicked and dangerous man, and should be punished for what he has done, not only here, but in other cities."

It is known that part of the initiation into the order includes the marriage of the young girls to "Oom, the Omnipotent." The women submitted meekly to his will, allowing him to send out their clothes to be pawned. They also brought in as much money as they could get and turned it over to the leader, who rendered no account.

"Oom" takes his arrest very calmly.

After he was held in $15,000 bail he showed that he had read the papers.

"All this white slave business will make it hard for me to beat the case," said he.

A great advantage was gained by the District Attorney in his fight to eradicate white slavery when Harry Levenson, one of the three prisoners charged with selling four young women, pleaded guilty, and volunteered to tell all he knew about the traffic.

District Attorney Whitman asked that Levenson be remanded for a week or two in order that he might have an opportunity to examine him. Judge O'Sullivan granted this request and demanded the prisoner to the Tombs indefinitely.

"You may be surprised, after we are married, to find how much things cost," he warned her.

"Oh, I don't know," she said, smiling. "I used to clerk in a delicatessen store."—Buffalo Express.
